

Table 11: Number of APSA Papers on APAs, 1990-2003

General Trend*	1990	1991	1992	1993	1994	1995	1996	1997	1998	1999	2000	2001	2002	2003	Total
N of papers on APAs	7	2	0	2	4	4	2	1	8	7	8	11	8	9	73
N of other panels dealing with APAs (mostly roundtables without papers)	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	1	1	0	0	3
N of papers scheduled for the entire APSA meeting		1940	1986	2053	2200	2160	2414	2419	2825
Papers on Specific Asian Ethnic Groups
N of Papers on Japanese (Americans)	3														3
N of Papers on Korean (Americans)									2				1	2	5
N of Papers on Chinese (Americans)	1									1				1	3
N of Papers on Taiwanese (Americans)												1			1
N of Papers on Filipino (Americans)															0
N of Papers on Vietnamese (Americans)														1	1
N of Papers on Cambodian Asians		1													1
N of Papers on South Asians															0
N of Papers on Native Hawaiians														1	1
Papers in Panel Not Cosponsored by Sec.32(REP) or APAC
Theme Panel														1	1
Section 5 (old 42) Political Psychology					1										1
Section 7 (old 16) Politics and History	1								1	1			1		4
Section 9 Teaching and Learning in Poli Sci											1				1
Section 22 Legislative Studies									1						1
Section 25 (old 13) Public Policy	2														2
Section 27 (old 10) Constit. Law & Jurisprudence	2
Section 30 (old 14) Urban Politics		1												1	2
Section 33 Region and Politics														1	1
Section 36 Elections and Voting Behavior															0
Section 37 (old 8,9) Public Opinion and Participation					1	2		1		1					5
Section 42 (old 39) New Political Science							1				1				2
Political Film Society							1								1

Source: compiled by authors. Total numbers of APSA papers from 1991-98 are taken from APSA (1998, 892).

* Reported as Table 2 in the July 2004 PS article.

 Other papers were about APAs in general (or those which does not mention specific ethnic groups in the title).

 Most papers on APAs were presented at panels sponsored by REP (Race, Ethnicity and Race) section or by APAC (Asian Pacific American Caucus).